PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: All right, please be seated. All right, we're here in Residential Capital. It's number 12-12020. Mr. Lee, you have an application you wanted to present?

MR. LEE: Yes, good afternoon, Your Honor. First of all thank you for hearing us on such short notice today. As Your Honor knows, the circumstances of this case are somewhat unusual, and we appreciate, again, Your Honor making yourself available.

Your Honor, this is an oral application seeking entry of an order, pursuant to the Court's equitable powers under Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, temporarily sealing the examiner report through and including May the 21st, 2003 (sic) at 9 a.m., if the debtors have not filed a motion seeking approval of a plan support agreement. If the debtors have filed a motion seeking approval of a plan support agreement, the oral request, Your Honor, is that the report be sealed through the earlier of July the 1st, 2013, or such date as the Court determines the motion.

As Your Honor knows, Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers the bankruptcy court to issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title. Your Honor, our view is that this is one of those situations in which a bankruptcy court may use its equitable powers to assure the orderly conduct of the reorganization proceedings.

What I'm here to report, Your Honor, is that the parties have made substantial progress towards the framework for a consensual plan of reorganization and we anticipate, Your Honor, that no later than 11 a.m. tomorrow morning, we will be in possession of signed plan term sheets.

THE COURT: All right. Anybody else wish to be heard?

All right. With respect to the application to require that the examiner's report, which is presently contemplated to be filed by 3 p.m. today, that it be filed under seal, the Court will grant the application.

We have a Residential Capital hearing scheduled for tomorrow morning at 9. I expect that counsel can then report, certainly before the conclusion of that hearing, whether there is a signed term sheet by the parties to the mediation that would create the structure for a broad consensual resolution of issues in the case; perhaps not every issue, but most issues.

In the event that a -- that the Court is advised that a term sheet has been executed, the stay will remain in effect until 9 a.m. May 21st, if the debtors have not filed a motion seeking approval of a plan support agreement. Or if the plan support -- if a motion to approve a plan support agreement has been filed, then the stay will continue to the earlier of July 1, 2013 or such date as the Court determines the motion to approve the plan support agreement.

1	I'll so order the transcript to that effect, but would
2	like a written order presented that incorporates what we've
3	just discussed, Mr. Lee.
4	MR. LEE: Thank you, very much, Your Honor.
5	THE COURT: Okay?
6	MR. LEE: We'll submit something to chambers.
7	THE COURT: And we'll see you tomorrow morning.
8	And with respect to the filing under seal of the
9	examiner's report, Una O'Boyle, the Chief Deputy Clerk, will
10	make the appropriate arrangements. The hard copy, or copies,
11	will be placed in the vault. And Ms. O'Boyle will also work
12	out the arrangements for electronic filing under seal.
13	I contemplate that I certainly will have access to the
14	electronic copy the hard copy if I want to see it, but I
15	don't even want it staying in my chambers in the meantime.
16	I've got enough ResCap paper in there. I don't want it getting
17	lost in the shuffle.
18	So that'll be the Court's disposition today, and I
19	guess I'll see you in the morning.
20	MR. LEE: See you tomorrow morning.
21	THE COURT: Thank you, very much.
22	MR. LEE: Thank you very much, Your Honor.
23	THE COURT: All right. We're in recess until 2
24	o'clock.
25	(Whereupon these proceedings were concluded at 1:46 PM)
